The Honorable Frank M. Karsten
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C. 20515

Dear Mr. Karsten:

Thank you for your letter of 17 November 1966 concerning [] [] who is interested in serving in some capacity with the Central Intelligence Agency.

As you are aware, [] met with our representatives in [] on 7 November 1966 to discuss his possible association with us. [] sincere interests in serving his country in some worthwhile capacity without remuneration is indeed appreciated.

We have no suitable position for [] and we believe [] [] understands this. You may be interested in knowing, however, that our representatives did discuss with [] ways in which he could be of assistance to this Agency. In this connection I am sending you a copy of [] letter to [] concerning his help in locating young college graduates having interests and career possibilities in the intelligence field.

Thank you for your interest on behalf of [] interest in serving this Agency in some capacity is truly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Vice Admiral, U.S. Navy
Deputy Director
